HEAD—the usurper's head (rep.) 3*Henry VI.* 1 unto the house of York such head 1 will you pale your head in Henry's and, with the crown, his head 1 my blood upon your heads! 1 with his head, and set it on York gates they took his head and on the gates making another head, to fight again the diadem from faint Henry's head the fault make forfeit of his head 1 yonder's the head of that arch-enemy doth grieve me that thy head is here!
 thy diadem upon my head 1 their blood upon thy head 1 the head, your father's head 1 off with the traitor's head 1 in my heart, not on my head 1 trunk that bears this head 1 once more on Henry's head 1 altho' my head still wear the crown his head by nature framed head 1 the body, when the head is off? 1 shall, whilst the head is warm 1 off with his guilty head 1 if a thing comes in his head 1 teeth hadst thou in thy head 1 if your head were laid 1 their heads that break his law 1 and shake your head, and call us 1 chop off his head, man 1 for they account his head upon the 1 might better wear his head 1 curse is fallen upon our heads 1 that he will lose his head 1 off with his head; now, by saint Paul on poor Hastings' head 1 short shrift, he longs to see your head to the block; bear him my head 1 here is the head of that ignoble 1 Brecknock, while my fearful head is on even here I see my head 1 thy head, all indirectly, gave 1 scaffold, there to lose their heads? 1 circling now thy head, had graced 1 or else his head's assurance is but 1 off goes your head 1 turned my feigned prayer on my head vengeance on the head of Richard 1 that ever entered in a drowsy head 1 draw your arrows to the head 1 off instantly! off his head 1 Thomas Lovell's heads should have 1 who first raised head against 1 too many curses on their heads 1 hung their heads, and then lay by 1 I'll hang my head 1
 the heads of all thy brother cardinals 1 I'd rather want those, than my head fly o'er thy royal head, and shade 1 I'll scratch your heads 1 spared any, that had to wear his head hit three times on the head 1 her pinked porringer fell off her head and on your heads clap round fines 1 close up, or I'll hang your heads and hang their heads with sorrow 1 well as you love an idle head 1 and bears his head in such a rep 1 fore all the Greekish heads (rep.) 1 didst itch from head to foot 1 and his guts in his head 1 but, by my head, 'tis pride 1 our melancholy upon your head! 1 our head shall go bare 1 there were wit in this head 1 would he were knocked off the head!
 off make thee to hide thy head 1 may pierce the head of the great 1 for which we lose our heads 1 you flipp me, he has head 1 and wear a castle on thy head! 1 coward Troilus, show thy head! 1 bowing his head against the steepy 1 have seen the foot above the head 1
 I have shook my head, and wept 1 what heart, head, sword, force 1 but they do shake their heads 1 he that has no house to put his head in set quarrelling upon the head of valour let's shake our heads, and say 1 pillows from below their heads 1 what! the kingly-crowned head 1 he'll beat Antidius' head below 1 in our own heads I do so 1 one scratch my head 'till the sun 1 made a head for Rome, he fought 1 not that our heads are some brown 1 Antidius then had made new head? 1 to show bare heads in congregation waving thy head, which often, thou the beast with many heads butts 1 has the porter his eyes in his head 1 not a hair upon a soldier's head 1 you lords and heads of the state 1 one another and shook their heads 1 to cut the head off, and then hack 1 when Caesar's head is off 1 then you scratch your head 1 waving our red weapons o'er our heads we must straight make head 1 doth therefore hide his head 1 fly o'er our heads, and downward look 1
 O yet hold up your heads 1
 Antony look over Caesar's head 1
 I'll unhair thy head 1
 and put garlands on thy head 1 that Herod's head I'll have 1 from the head of Acton's head 1 her head's declined, and death will 1 send this grizzled head 1

HEAD—that head, my lord? Antony & Cleopatra, iii. 11 on our best heads know, 1 with clouts about their heads 1 now from head to foot I am 1 audacity, from head to foot! 1 if that his head have ear in music 1 will soon be away to head 1 thy head, which now is growing 1 gates of Lud's town set your heads 1 the fool had borne my head, as I do his cut off one Cloten's head (rep.) 1 may make some stouter head 1 more perilous than the head 1
 I have ta'en his head from him 1 violet, not wagging his sweet head 1 we must lay his head to the east 1 slak, whose is thy head? where's that!
 at the heart, and left this head on 1 your death has eyes in's head then 1 those which I heaved to head 1
 I cut off's head; and am right glad 1 dall on their heads like dew! (rep.) 1 a head on headless Rome (rep.) 1 and revenge are hammering in my head 1 with thee: their heads, I mean 1 here are the heads of thy two noble sons 1 see, thy two sons' heads 1 for these two heads do seem to speak 1 come, brother, take a head 1 the Goths have gathered head 1 and I hang the head as flowers 1 as true a dog as ever dog was 1 he had his two sons' heads 1 thy car is laden with their heads 1 two pasties of your shameful heads 1 let their vile heads be baked 1 to love my head! Heaven's head 1 for the which we mean to have his head 1 heart can lend no succour to my head 1 whose towers bore heads so high 1 too harsh for ladies' heads 1
 If without a head, (like a head) 1 on the head of Helicanus would 1 a pillow for his head 1 that it had its head bit off by its young 1 why, to put his head in 1 horses and by the head 1 thunderbolts, singe my white head! 1
 'gainst a head so old and white as this 1 he that has a house to put his head in 1 the heads of the heads 1 keep this dreadful pother o'er our heads 1 your houseless heads, and unfed sides 1 Tom will throw his head at them 1 for, with throwing thus my head 1 such a storm as the head 1 whose high and bending head looks 1 decline your head: this kiss 1 a cheek for blows, a head for wrongs 1 he seems no bigger than his head 1 to lose shake the head to hear of 1 no eyes in your head 1 that eyeless head of thine was first 1 from the extremest upward of thy head 1 toss these treasons to thy head 1 their heads. The heads (rep.) 1 he swung about his head 1 their eyes were there, they in her head? 1 being o'er my head, as is a winged 1 it argues a distempered head 1 my head ached with the head 1 thy head is as full of quarrels as 1 yet thy head hath been beaten 1 but my head, here come the Capulets 1 but a little way above our heads 1 thou cutt'st off her head with a great axe vaulty heaven so high above our heads 1 a head sir, that will find out logs 1 heap not another sin upon my head 1 their spring, their head, their descent 1 for sorrow, will not show his head 1 and the chief head of this post-haste 1 the head is not more native to the heart 1 it lifted up its head, and did address 1 my lord, from head to foot 1 that body, whereof he is the head 1 with all my imperfections on my head 1 no hat upon his head; his stockings 1 thrice his head thus waving up and down 1 and, with his head over his shoulder 1 the head and source of all your son's 1 head to foot now is he total guile 1 declining on the milky head of reverend 1 a clout upon that head 1
 I mean, my head up on your head 1 at his head a grass-green turf 1 riotous head, o'erbears your officers! 1 and wager o'er your heads 1 a flagon of Rhenish on my head once 1 fall ten times treble on that cursed head 1 or the skyish head of blue Olympus 1 my head should be struck off 1
 'tis for the great. I thank your lordship 1 he has laid a crown on your head 1 runs away with the shell on his head 1 fallen on the inventors' heads 1 the very head and front of my offending 1 and hills whose heads touch heaven 1 and men whose heads are over benches 1 destruction on my head, if my bad blame 1 make head against my estimation! 1 change the cod's head for the salmon's tail 1 on horror's head horrors accumulate 1 have you not hurt your head? 1 if any wretch hath put this in your head 1 kinds of sores, and shames, on my bare head 1 but to go hang my head all at one side 1 her bosom, her head on her knee 1

HEART—hath struck me at the heart. Henry VI. i. 1 have torn and rent my very heart words bewitch your hearts exploits done in the heart of France unto the prince's heart of Calydun in her heart she scorns our poverty O Lord, my heart! Sirrah, or you the treasure of thy heart how irksome is this music to my heart such as my heart doth tremble leave to afflict my heart!
 my heart assures me, that the earl full of tears, my heart of grief sort thy heart to patience hath he won the commons' hearts a heart unspotted is not easily eyes blab his heart's malice envious load that lies upon his heart my heart is drowned with grief my heart accordeth with my tongue find no harbour in a royal heart in your breasts, will sting your hearts because thy flinty heart, more hard a heart it was bound in with I wished, thy body might my heart mine eyes be packing with my heart all descended to the labouring heart how take they hearts with cold shall be scoured in his rancorous heart breastplate than a heart untainted!
 heart's discontent, and sour afflictions my burdened heart would break of thy mother's bleeding heart hath given them heart and courage as free as heart can wish conduct you through the heart of France let our hearts be as good my heart is turned to stone heart, be wrathful still but that my heart's on future reigns in the hearts of all my heart's love for my heart thought of this from Henry's heart to our hearts' great sorrow how thy words revive my heart those three lords torment my heart the lukewarm blood of Henry's heart slake mine ire, nor ease my heart finger, though to wound his heart thy fiery heart so parched thine O tiger's heart, wrapped in my furnace, and my heart
 they had no heart to fight were thy heart as hard as steel object cheer your heart, my lord!
 steel thy melting heart, to hold
 my furnace, and my heart

 and here's the heart, the triumph and let our hearts, and eyes, like tempest of my heart, upon thy will pierce into a marble heart my crown for in my heart my heart overflows too much content, to that which grieves my heart while heart is drowned in cares passion of my sovereign's heart my heart's unquench'd joy where a noble heart hath pawned and with your hands your hearts glad my heart, with hope of this my sick heart shows

 the cheerfulness of my heart my heart will burst be the heart, that had the heart fouler than heart can think thee my proud heart sues, and prompts good sir John, with all my heart our hearts, he knows no more of mine

 my woman's heart grossly grew

HEART—my heart is ten times but cheer thy heart, and be thou not my heart is very joyful a thousand hearts are great within and take it from a heart that wishes and the best heart of it, thanks you the heart of all their loyalties and cold hearts freeze allegiance ever any malice in your heart make friends, and give your hearts too and every true heart weeps for't so dear in heart, not to deny hearts of most hard temper have too a woman's heart; which ever but your heart is crammed with killing care, and grief of heart and hollow hearts, I fear ye but heaven knows your hearts the hearts of princes kiss obedience he has my heart yet; and shall have the string, the master-cord of his heart!
 I have kept you next my heart my heart dropped love, my power so your hand and heart, your brain my heart weeps, to see him so I feel my heart new opened all that have not hearts of iron bewish those hearts that God turn their hearts! I never I speak it with a single heart may never find a heart with less with a true heart, and brother-love if does a man's heart good this will do Helen's heart good now then though my heart's content heart of our numbers, soul and only nothing so full of heart what heart receives from heart I should have have hearts without a heart to dare my heart beats thicker than nay, you shall fight your heart comes to me now, and brings me heart to stick the heart of falsehood God be wi' you, with all my heart fare you well, with all my heart as heart can think, or colour come, come, beshrew your heart!
 I break my heart with sounding Troilus there offering to it his own heart O heart, as the goodly saying is in my heart will be the heart be thou but true of heart no maculation in thy heart half heart, half hand his heart and hand both open upon heart of very heart must take my heart withal but with my heart the other eye there is a credence in my heart as Mars his heart inflamed with Venus mere words; no matter
 here lies thy heart, thy sinews and tendance all sorts of hearts hate a lord with my heart out goes the very heart of kindness I am bound to your heart my lord, in heart; and let the health thy good heart, Apemantus!
 that you would once use our hearts chiefly belong to my heart show him what a beggar's heart your several visitations so kind to heart false hearts should never have sound what heart, head, sword, force, means bounty hath yet passed secure thy heart; if it would broach try the argument of hearts by such a faint and milky heart so much I love his heart
 it is against my heart
 show me an heart
 cut my heart in sums ne'er prefer his injuries to his heart troops, and lay for hearts with all my heart, gentlemen both yet do our hearts wear Timon's livery brought low by his own heart the canker gnaw thy heart the eyes, and hearts of men at duty O thou touch of hearts!
 lend me a fool's heart, and a woman's in excess hath broke their hearts wilt send thy gentle heart before the counselor heart, the arm even to the court, the heart to break the heart of generosity shields before your hearts; and in heart as merry, as when our their very heart of hope shall say, against their hearts but cannot make my heart consent wash my fierce hand in his heart it does offend my heart: pray now begin at very root of his heart for the time, but hearts for the event and his actions in their hearts and have hearts incline to honour rather to have my hat than my heart methinks, 'tis warm at his heart had your bodies no heart among you his heart's his mouth: what his breast I have a heart as little apt as yours which your heart prompts you to correcting thy spout heart
